OVERVIEW

The Alliance of Australian Muslims (AAM) is a representative body of Australian Muslims, comprising of over 200 grassroots mainstream Muslim organisations across Australia.

The Alliance of Australian Muslims is a Not for Profit Organisation operating to serve Muslims of Australia while seeking the pleasure of Allah and following the path of his messenger Mohammad (Peace Be Upon Him).

The AAM aims to engage all segments of the Muslim community to unite, collaborate, and network. Our objective is to represent Muslims in Australia and create a more established and brighter future for all Australian Muslims.

AAM works towards overcoming the challenges that the Muslim community is encountering in Australia, by being proactive, transparent and professional in its presentation

VISION

The Alliance of Australian Muslims (AAM) aims to be a leading collaborative platform enhancing and advancing a faithful productive Australian Muslim Community.

MISSION

To effectively coordinate and promote a wholesome Muslim identity, enhance media and political engagement, strengthen public relations and advocate for the protection of civil rights.

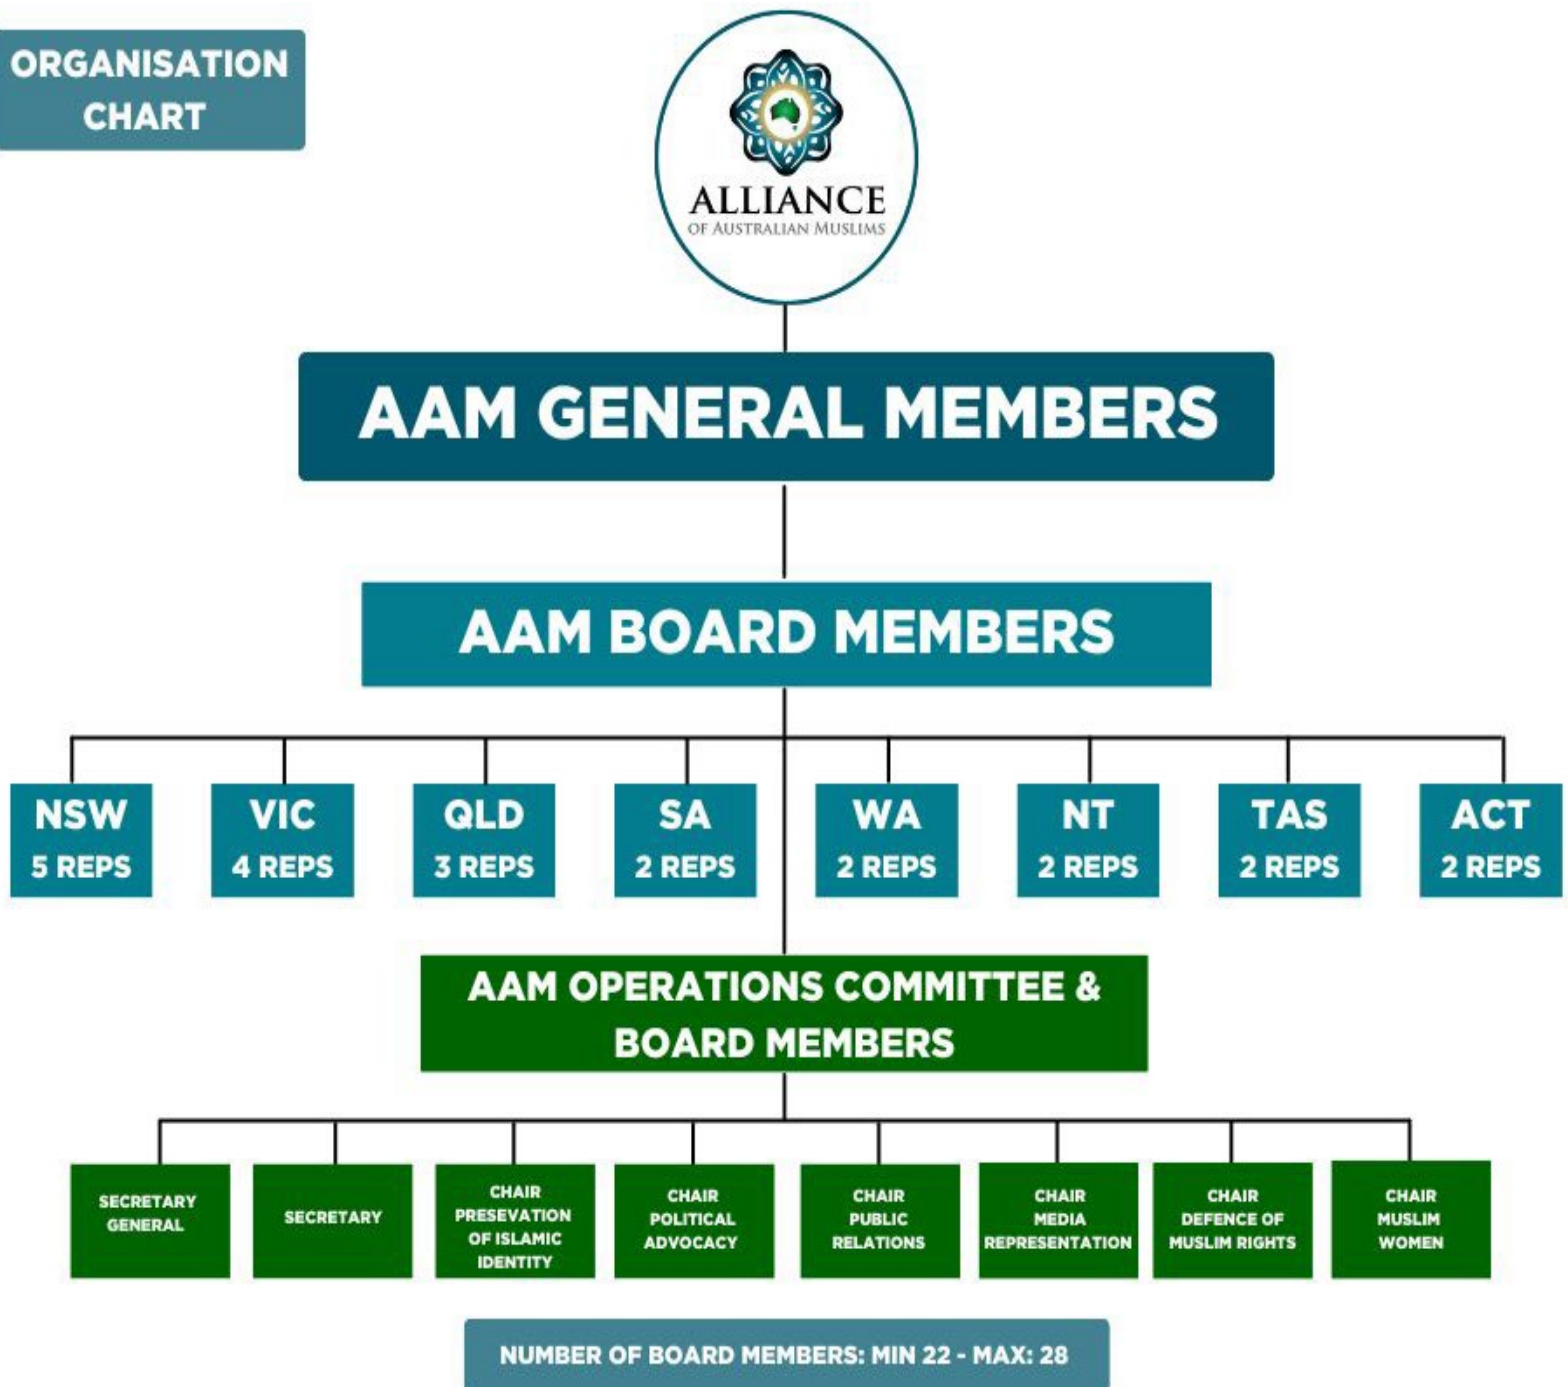

SCOPE OF ORGANISATIONS

- The primary purpose and goal of the AAM is to serve Islam and Muslims whilst seeking the pleasure of Allah and following the path of his messenger Mohammad (Peace Be Upon Him).
- The Muslim community in Australia is all encompassing, diverse, and inclusive community. The Australian Muslim community is diverse in its culture, Islamic schools of thought, groups (Jama'at) and religious opinions and verdicts.
- Australian Muslims must always display mutual respect to one another regardless of what we agree or disagree on.
- The unity of the Muslim community is of utmost importance and this is acknowledged as a religious obligation.
- To work together to overcome the challenges that the Muslim community is encountering nationally and internationally.
- To resolve any disputes amongst ourselves in accordance with the teachings of Islam, religious obligations, and the Islamic code of conduct and ethics.
- No compromise on the fundamental values and principles of the mainstream teachings of Islam derived from the Quran, Sunnah, and the opinion of the majority of the mainstream Muslim scholars and Imams in the past and the present.
- To work with each other for the common good and interest to serve, advance, and prosper the Muslim community in Australia.
- To strive towards preserving the Islamic identity in Australia in accordance to the teachings of the Quran and Sunnah and the mainstream teachings of Islam in order to preserve the future generations of Muslims in Australia.
- To work towards correcting and improving the image of Islam and Muslims in Australia and communicate effectively with all Australian stakeholders, Government and Non-Government organisations and the wider Australian society to convey a positive and accurate representation of Islam and Muslims whilst observing the Islamic teachings and guidelines.
- The Australian Muslim community is part of the fabric of Australian society. We acknowledge that Australia is our country and nation and as such we will be positive contributors towards the security, future prosperity, and development of this country.
