

8th Alliance of Australian Muslims (AAM) National Summit 2025

Etiquettes and Reminders for the Meeting

Purpose and Spirit of the Summit

1. Approach the Summit with a positive and sincere attitude, remembering that we are here to serve Islam and the Australian Muslim community for the sake of Allah (SWT).
2. The AAM Summit aims to unite the Muslim community in Australia by focusing on shared priorities and achieving positive, collective outcomes.
3. The Summit will maintain neutrality towards all mainstream Muslim organisations and groups.
4. The discussion will not mention specific groups or organisations, nor will it debate Islamic jurisprudence or contested fiqh matters.
5. The Summit is not a forum to discuss or interfere in any organisation's internal affairs or structure. It will address only issues of common concern and benefit to the community.
6. The Summit will prioritise the most pressing issues facing the Muslim community, with the understanding that not every issue can be resolved at once.
7. Participants are encouraged to focus on common ground and avoid divisive or sensitive topics that may lead to disagreement.
8. Discussions should remain aligned with the official agenda and its identified areas of focus.

Meeting Conduct

9. Please keep all comments and contributions short, concise, and relevant. Avoid repeating points that have already been made.
10. Respect others while they are speaking. Do not interrupt or talk over others.
11. Maintain respect and courtesy when discussing different opinions. While approaches may differ, our goals and intentions remain united.
12. Confidentiality is essential. Do not share details, discussions, or names of attendees outside the Summit without explicit permission.
13. No public statements about the Summit or AAM are to be made unless agreed upon by the majority of attendees.
14. Regardless of the outcomes, participants must support and respect one another and continue to work together for the common good.
15. The Summit must not be used for personal, organisational, or political agendas, but solely for the benefit and advancement of the Muslim community.

For Participants Joining via Zoom

1. Test your video and audio before the meeting begins.
2. Ensure you are in a quiet environment free from background noise.
3. Keep your camera steady, minimise unnecessary movement, or turn it off.
4. All participants will be muted by default. To speak, please use the Raise Hand function (found under Reactions) and wait for your turn.
5. Unmute only when invited to speak.
6. Recording of the meeting or discussions is strictly prohibited.

Jazakom Allahu Khairan, thank you for your understanding, cooperation, and commitment to the unity and success of the Australian Muslim community.
